

The surprise

9783940884695

19.00 € TTC

The young boy, Pierre, of a Jewish family of Paris survived the Holocaust only by lucky circumstances. Little Pierrot, as he was called lost her parents including this 3 brothers and sisters during the deportation by the Nazi Regime. He found himself back, alone aged of 3 years, in a destroyed world. Nevertheless, growing older, he nevertheless never gave up the hope to find some of his relatives back and started searching for them. The surprise was perfect when he finally found two of them back after seventy years of searching, one brother and one sister.